DISCLOSURE OF INTENT TO OBTAIN CONSUMER REPORTS OR INVESTIGATIVE CONSUMER REPORTS

For employment purposes, a consumer reporting agency may obtain consumer reports, or investigative consumer reports, in connection with your employment application or from time to time during employment in accordance with applicable law. Consumer reports include record checks conducted by consumer reporting agencies and may include driving records, criminal records, credit records, etc. This information may be obtained from private and public record sources, including, as appropriate: government agencies and courthouses and educational institutions. Investigative consumer reports include investigations (for example, reference checks) conducted by consumer reporting agencies through personal interviews (or through any means in California) on information as to character, general reputation, personal characteristics, or mode of living. You may make a written request for a summary of consumer rights and a disclosure of the nature and scope of an investigation. A disclosure of the nature and scope of such investigation is provided below.

DISCLOSURE OF NATURE AND SCOPE OF INVESTIGATION FOR INVESTIGATIVE CONSUMER REPORT

In the event we request an investigative consumer report in connection with your employment application, a consumer reporting agency will prepare an investigative consumer report based on the following investigation: The agency will interview your former employers, business references, and/or personal references for information regarding prior employment, work experience and performance, reasons for employment termination, and information as to character, general reputation, personal characteristics, or mode of living. The agency will also conduct a records check of driving, criminal, credit, education, worker's compensation claim history, degrees, professional licenses, and/ or certification records depending on the position. Such a report, as well as any credit report, will be obtained from a consumer reporting agency. I have received a summary of my rights under the Fair Credit Reporting Act. The scope of this notice and authorization is all-encompassing and allows the Company to obtain from any outside organization all manner of consumer reports throughout the course of your employment or your contract period to the extent permitted by law.
